"Where I Belong"

You saw the man behind my face
A drifting astronaut in space
No true dimensions
Though his intension is for real

I know you hold the golden key
So help me sail across the sea
You are my lighthouse
Just let me win now
Won't you please
Blow your breeze

Chorus:
Feel the rain on my skin
As your love shines within
On my way to being strong
There's a place where I belong
I'm getting strong
There's a place where I belong

My life became a silly game
With all the rules in dusty frames
I missed the season
Without a reason
I need you
I need a clue

Chorus:
Feel the rain on my skin
As your love shines within
On my way to be strong
There's a place where I belong
I'm getting strong
There's a place where I belong
