He says we've been hanging out for a while
And wants me to be his girlfriend now
I think that we need to slow it down
But he's not trying to hear those words from my mouth
He remembers our first date where he took me and what we both ate
He gets mad cause sometimes I forget
Can't remember the place that we met
He want's me to be serious
I'm to young to be serious
I'm not ready for love, love, love
I don't want to be serious
We're not ready for serious
I'm not ready for
Ready for love,
Ready for love
With you right now
With you right now
With you right now
With you right now
He always tells me that he's in love
But my response is never enough
He says that I'm detached
I just think it's my reaction
To move away
And give us space
Doesn't mean I don't like you
But I like to move at my own pace
I don't want to rush
He want's to be serious
I'm to young to be serious
We're not ready for love
[Love] love
[Ready for love] love
I don't want to be serious
We're not ready for serious
I'm not ready for love
Ready for love
Ready for love
With you right now
With you right now
With you right now

With you right now
I'm
Way
Too young
To be thinking of love
Love
Love
Let's wait a while,
Babe, wait a while
What are we rushing for?
Let's take our time
I can't give you more than this
He want's to be serious
I'm too young to be serious
We're not ready for love
[Love] love
[Ready for love] love
I'm not ready for love
Ready for love
Ready for love
With you right now
With you right now
With you right now
With you right now
Serious
Serious
Love [love]
Love [ready for love]
Love
With you right now [serious]
With you right now
With you right now
With you right now
