i run away
cause i'm not happy with the way everthing is is that the best way to be?
is there any other way comment please i run away for reasons not to be disturbe i run away feel so good about it then come back and everything ok when will i ever feel so right around here i run away from bad ness i run away to protect myself i run away i'm scared to ended up no where i run away cause there's no other wya i can feel good about being aornd here you don't know what it's like for me to feel that lonely inside you don't know what it's liek to be me

i run awa i'm scarred of ending up alone
i run away
i run away oooooooooo i run away
