"I Thought"

i thought i knew i thought that i could believe it i thought i understood i just thought it was true wonder sometimes where i'm coming from if i knew what happened in my last life i wouldn't learn anything my soul is so smart

i thought things were good between our lives well today i seem to think it's not all okay we learn so much in a day it's so much of not funy i thought i thought that life was easy since i am now teen i hate growing up

get pains inside feel so tired
