i'm a child i'm a growing child still in the same middle as i've always been when can i fit in will i ever chose what's right instead of whats wrong sometimes i think igot problems i know i'm not dumb i need more friendship

i need more people to see me i'm notice only at separte times i wish comments so bad never got to me i wish that i only listened to my heart am i doing what's right for me i serioosuly got a big deal it's okay for u because your not me and i totally understand when i grow up nothing i hope to happen to me no sickness or situations where i'm stuck i can't find what i'm missing
