get what ever out of my hands i'm not here for long how can i survive without you my dear i'm afraid to let go of what means so much to me get whatever you think you can put in my hands out please i'm not here to play games without you dear i could be alone my happiness is so unbelievable i'm changing so much my school my change my everything is amazing oh babe get what ever out of my hands i don't play games i'm just being me you understand heey looking at you everyday reminds me of so much being away from you so much is now gonna get to me so get it all out of my hands i don't want to bring that with me with me

with me 0oooo

it's so cool
