I used to think that we were stars
We'd float inside the milky way
I used to think that we could fall apart
Somewhere out there
I know that you're trying to start over
So am I, you just can't tell at this very moment
We are racing
Another tailspin
We can see the future
In our resolutions
I used to think we were a galaxy
The miles between us never stop
I used to think that monsters
Wouldn't let me sleep
But morning comes whether you're
Here or not
I know that you're trying to Start over
So am I, you just can't tell at
This very moment
We are racing
Another tailspin
We can see the future
In our resolutions
We can see the future
We can see the future
We are racing
Cuz we can see the future
I could tell you I'm wrong
But what do I know?
Yea, what do I know?
I could tell you I'm fine
But do you care?
Yea, what do you care?
We are racing
Another tailspin
We can see the future
In our resolutions
We can see the future
We can see the future
We are racing
Cuz we can see the future

We are racing
We are racing
We are racing
