Oh once in a while we all fall,
We take what we can if there's nothing at all
I am the girl that you used to know
I am the star of your favorite show
Couldn't you
Let me walk away
Given me a chance to get ahead of this game
It was all up to us, now there's no one to blame
Just let me start over again
And I'll be okay
There's a place in my heart that could hurt you
But then you'd know I care
And if I ever had the nerve to desert you
Would you still be here
Couldn't you
Let me walk away
Given me a chance to get ahead of this game
It was all up to us, now there's no one to blame
Just let me start over again
And I'll be okay
They say nothing in life is a failure
You'll win some and you'll lose
I gave it all I had to give,
I could have given it all to you, to you
Couldn't you
Let me walk away
Given me a chance to get ahead of this game
It was all up to us, now there's no one to blame
Just let me start over again
And I'll be okay
