They said the moment's come and gone
I ran to silence you away
But it looks like nothing's changed
You said it won't be hard
But nothing's ever been so hard
Why'd you have to go, away?
Why'd you have to go, away?
She said she needs you more than me
I woke from the same dream, but you walked in
And you took the best part of me
You said it won't be hard
But nothing's ever been so hard
Why'd you have to go, away?
Why'd you have to go, away?
Slow down, aren't we fine now?
How can I make you stay
Slow down, man I don't think I can
It went by us in a blur, don't know what we think we're waiting
For
Why'd you have to go, away?
Why'd you have to go, away, away, away?
