holding you're destiny oh can be truly a thrill for me holding on to you;re past wont last oh dear happines with you never ends you never cry or lie you always laugh and show everyone your tricks what a thrill

what a belief

oh dear what;s with the twisted romance you and the girl never find your way what's with the change all the time ohh you always seem so happy i canno tbelieve it i think that you're hiding some emotions inside to afraid to let go try doing omething different for a change in life f

you and that girl seem to be the same you and this romance you and the disguise distant you can't see what she's feeling all u do is be yourself can you change can she trust you she thinks you're true she has trust put inside for you she's trying to shwo you1
