I got this feeling inside i can not say what should i do if it is just standing there and just making me lose ohh yeah no wah oww there's madness i feel there's sickness i feel there's anger in me i feel there's boredom in me there's so many fears i can't see there's so much i can do there's alot i got to forget i got this feeling inside i can't say i got madness trying to take over me i wish that life for me was easy wish people listened wish you understand i cant stop feeling lonely i can't stop feeling like i lost there's such a big smile in my stomach saying be strong and half is mad and feeling nervous

i can't go out with anyone i can't disguise anything real i'm so unsure i'm so fearfull i'm so beautiful i'm so unsurre

i'm so scared i'm so unsure i'm so scared i'm feeling so nervous

i'm so scared i'm so quiet i feel so tired there's a little feeling inside shutdown and lost and fearfull who can i talk to who can i trust why is this happening to me i'm innocent so is everyone elase

i'm sick of it changing i'm sick of feeling this way
