all hope was gone
before i got the chance this couldn't be happening all i am is just a girl

just as i prepared myself to get ready for a experience my life already has come to where i dont want it and at this time i'm lost

all hope gone
no this couldn't be true babe all i have is you i got trust with you
and all hope gone

just at the wrong time of the year babe all i see with you is love being created when a boy asks me something i seem to misunderstand cause at the time all hope was gone this couldn't be really true not now not ever... so much i've nevre thought happen remember that i got faith in u do you call me as your girlfriend?????
