Because I love you _lyrics

'being here everyday with you" was the thing I always wanted to be if you knew that I loved you before a lot maybe you and I would be together and that hurt wouldn't be standing where it is now you think I like a monster in my man you think I like all the nastiness' believe me no Not true why be that way" why take things the wrong way when you could do it the right way your chance will stand their for a long time because I love you" and I hope sometime you will see and except that' because I'm feeling too much hurt I'm going crazy not being with you I'm feeling I've been over reacting' give me the chance let me feel free to hold you let me feel free to tell you all the secrets I have Just think you're missing out on a lot with me

you think I like a monster in my man
you think I like all the nastiness' believe me no not true Why be that way' why take things the wrong way
will stand their for a long time because" I love you nothing can change that' unless something' big comes into my life

I don't like being a single girl forever' I wouldn't mind it but It's gives me all the right reasons to be silly' and crazy I have no Idea why"? so don't ask I'm in pain without you"

you think I like a monster in my man
you think I like all the nastiness' believe me no not true
when you could do it the right way your chance
will stand their for a long time because" I love you
