can't see with my eyes closed but i can if the eyes are open butterfly feeling inside now i want to disguise a request made oh only not too long ago when can i get the chance to win something real and true thoughts i got in mind are no different to yours

disguise the faith for once and for all leave a bookmark in your chapters cause right now all i am is lost with u and u talk to much so i can't remember set the timer and remain quietly for the next step of ur life you may not be prepared but honistly i am and i couldn't be happier right now all i seee is me here with you disguise something real disguise an open door..
