when i ask where you been you gave me no answer
what is happening to us??

you were my life you were my world you taught me alot that i never knew before you helped me through darkness now all i have to say is thank you

dreams ant forever
your love goes when you die you learn from mistakes you watch what you say incase it comes out the wrong way

you give me no answer
what is happening to us?

latly you've been in out of day light it seems like you Don't love me any more

dreams ant forever

all my life i wanted to tell truth but all i have done was lie to protect myself...

you take each step one day at a time latly all i've keep hold of was our hopes and what we both have to remember wanna love you as long as i can can't change what i feel inside all i have to do to find out who i am is take time out...and sit alone and regret my mistakes and lies then see the real picture i might of missed so many times.
