so much going on outside my life so much happen round the world there's alot on everyones plat not many people see it really everytime i talk tto u u dont understand everytime i want a moment with you you walk away outside my school life i seem to be so special at home i'm so inportent to everyon at school i'm not the cool one they are they all like to say nasty comments so they feel better some girls they just hate me cuz i got everything they all want you know what i mean dont ya seems only at home i belong there seems only with friends and family are my soul mates i'mm not the one to convince this is getting way out of hand nmy life is changing can-not control myself over you!

everytime i try to talk to you you seem to walk awaay is there something you're hinding from me whats going on i wish i had a moment with you (moment with you) ohh everytime i try to talk you seem to walk away like you dont want to listen you bad mouth the days we have gone so qickly wish life wasnt so short
