I never knew i'd be that lost without you I never thought you would come and go the lies in your eyes i see truth on it's way the fate that we both hold the journeys we have are amazing I never knew this would come true

I feel i've failed with you
I feel i can never make new love again

It seems you were only ment to be with me and that everybody elase distroyed it

the lies in your eyes i see truth on it's way
the fate that we both hold the journeys
we have are amazing I never knew
this would come true

I feel we've lost eachother I feel we can never win to be together

I feel i've failed with you
I feel i can never make new love again

the love we have for eeachother is like madness the truth the lies we see through eachother is amazing amazing (amazing) I feel i've failed with you... ohh I feel i've failed with you Ohhh The truth the lies we see through eachother is amazing
