if you knew what love was

would treat me like your girl? i wanted always that to happen all you've done was yell in my face everytime i was happy you would just make me angry if you knew what love was maybe you and i would be happy ever after who do you think you are trying to take over my life? it was so sad to see you cry but then i thought about the times when you made me cry

maybe you wouldn't do what you do maybe you and i would live happy ever after just maybe that's our problem
if you knew what love was
it would work out

maybe you would understand what girls feel inside if you yell in my face it makes the girl inside cry i hope you see sometime if you knew what love was maybe you and i would live in happy way together forever ..yeah .
