*~ Just Like I *~

you are just like I you can't take'
all the anger...through everyone your soul I believe is stronger' then I ever though my smile is strong enough to stay open forever the same oh yeah and never can change

I have so much to give' I got so much to forget' theres' a past I had and I forgot it and I have been smiling ever since I got my strength back

you are just like I you can't take what comes out of peoples mouths you are just like I I'm finding things in life alot easier when I hang around you and your friends you what I never thought would be real to me since i've changed' i've become someone new nothing is like I and like you' if you ever'run away. i may just have to come by the way

you are just like I

Just like I

nothing can change' what fate has brought us Nothing can change' who we really are

Just like I .
