last night on earth
it could be my last breathe my life has been the best thing ever to me it could be my last take it could be my last chance to say what i feel inside *
last night on earth
it could be my last hear

my life has been the best thing that i ever knowen before it could be my last night on earth you never know till it's your turn to know i don't hope ever that i'll die never will i lie or die never

last night on earth
my life has been so much to me ever since i was born has a baby from the beginning

Last Nigh On Earth!!! back ups you must never lie you must always except what you've got

Last night on earth
i can't believe that this could be my last night on earth it's an emotionaly except to happen thing OHh

last night on earth!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
yeah

what i am feeling inside is hard to go through no matter what you say i'm never gonna change i know it could be my last night on earth i except everything to go my way or elase i'm Out of the gane

last night on earth
it could be my last say for all i know
yeah
