cold in the rain falling from the sky hoping that i wouldn't feel pain as i come down feeling like nobody i knew listened feeling like the rain made me feel shocked
hoping that i wouldn't feel pain as i fell from the sky feelings ant always the same i didn't know that falling from the sky would keep me this way forever wish i was a fairy tale wish that i could see what happens next

i never knew this story could end tragic feeling like nobody i knew listened hoping that i wouldn't feel this way forever nobody gave me a chance nobody let me share my feelings cause if i did they'd yell at me how can this be ?
why is this happening to me?
nobody i knew listened
they ignored me they told me one step at a time that i was never good they told me that i'd been the one always on their own well i don't believe it i can't be this way it's not gonna be happening nobody i knew listened..
