when you are in one of the bad mood's what happens when you feel so wrong inside? i feel i don't belong here ,i feel i'm not this person any more , i feel i change too much i was almost in a moment so beautiful until people walked through that door i was in romance life is such a wonderful then noboy can live without there soul being huge and very grown up to them nobody likes people who never listen and that's like me i've had trouble all alone .but nobody knew where i was coming from so i say that's not right it's just not right no i don't believe it's right i believe it's wrong ,wrong,wrong,wrong,wrong when i laugh i see truth through you're eyes when i smile i just think the day through once again

when i laugh i see truth through you're eyes when i smile i just think the day through ( yeah ) nobody can live without there soul nobody will listen to me when i got to say something nobody knows the true person that i am ,cause all i do is change my moods.....it's all hard to explain.

noboy will listen
