i know what i did wrong i know why you hate me i know what you are feeling i can see stragihht through u i see through your eyes my face i see we can be great lovers after all i can see we can make this time perfect chrous ^

i see us forever
i see so much reflection i know where my firection will back home with u oin my arms feeling so much love and changes happing our lives i want this time to never end i want our first time back together perfect i dont want it to be tragic no more tragic moments between us please forgive what my last word was please understand what i've been going through please forgive myself
