four thoughts at once
what one can suit me?
i'm a little tired toady i'm unfocus i'm trying hard to realize what i might be misssing this is a chance i have to take.....

3 words said to me
in a misunderstanding way what is happening to us ?
i'm telling you here the truth in a day like this oh things can't get better with me with you with noone this is my life i've had trouble communcating cause i'm too over tired too over nervous line's sometime's i dont like being me i have to admit it's hard being me i'd like to leave you some beautiful comments today....

some people have a heart most unlike me have no interests... i'm bored with myself i totally think.
