looking under water feeling like i can't breathe wish i was a creature who could breathe under water cause then that'll be really cool

as i walk by near the water i start to feel chilly but when it's summer i seem to feel okay sometime's i just want to live in my own world i wanna create a new thing but confused with what i want that thing to be.....

when i sleep i dream and think the day through and go should i of done that but from when i do that i seem to learn more and more and get smarter by the minute sometime's i just want to create and be the person most people find extroadnary don't sometime's want to be me i believe in magic and fairy tales and i believe in you i find you one of my fairy tales you are my life and you are such a wonderful person.
