walking around with out energy walking around without sun cream
on ohh''

forgetting about the ones who call names to the rest the smart ones get picked on the ones that are good at stuff are the one's always with a crowd walking until i feel undone walking into a life oh so younge surviving until the last breath hoping that this dream won't be forever cause i don't want to understand the one's so unhappy with thereself don't want another sad unhappy face got everything i need got everything i ever dreamed off to have.....
