holding the love i have for you trying to keep you n my mind forever never gong to try to hide my feelings i have for you i feel soo younge sometimes i find things too much sometimes i feel i need to be without you when i am standing where the sun is shining i end up with saw eyes it's like i'm really sensertive

i can't wait to be someones new friend i believe i already am i want to know i am beautiful i want to know i am notice as i awlk through the door every day of this week

when i am standing where the sun is shining

i wish i could be beautiful,i wish i was noticed i wish emotions would just fade i'm sick of having a head pain and stomach pain it's killing me

i want to know i am notice as i walk through the door everyday of this week.
