so today was the day that was a matter why can't everyday be a matter was i ment to be here in 1991 was i just a girl back then why can't i make since in life am i here to make no since since i begun my future i've become more muture cause i've grown up i'm such a imsprationally girl i like to feel disapointed i like to be creative in my own ways sometime's i can make my own rues sometime's i just can be in my own living world am i making since here ? am i moving to a different step of my life when can i make something right wanna keep the heart in the right place never want anything to deep touch it
