so many ways i care about you
so many ways i love you so many things i have to say about you you are one thing i love.. it's hard to explain it's like it's all the same my thought in mind now is i'm thinking about you..

i couldn't chose what way the most you are one lucky thing i have.
you gave me a huge surprise in the end you made me forgive you again cause so many ways i love you so many ways i love..

when i see your face when i see you walk around do you know how i feel as i see you smile i get strength i love you in too many ways you make me feel beautiful.....

so many words i have to saay about you your one of my dreams

so many things we both been through
you gave me a huge surprise..
