Your what keeps the stars hung up in the sky
Your what keeps the rivers from runnin' dry

Your what makes my heart go and skip a beat,
When you are inches away from me

There ain't no reason
There ain't no rhyme
But still it happens every single time
When we say nothing at all
'Cause your kiss is so natural

Our first touch was like wildfire
Two hearts dancing on a high wire
Too young to know what's right
But too much in love to try to fight it

Your what keeps the stars hung up in the sky
Your what keeps the rivers from runnin' dry

Your what makes my heart go and skip a beat,
When you are inches away from me

There ain't no reason
There ain't no rhyme
But still it happens every single time
When we say nothing at all
'Cause your kiss so natural

Oh, No, No, No
'Cause your kiss is so natural
Oh, Ohhh, Oh, Ohhh

Uhh, No
'Cause your kiss is so natural
Oh, Ohh

'Cause your kiss is so natural
