i like the tickets time still apologize the way you see me now what i am inside main character there wasn't any for us i tryin to keep it up one i look into your eyes ..

i saw you how crystal clear and when you look back mine that you seem to disappear chorus:
because it was all, it was all, it was all masquerade because it was all, it was all, it was masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade
masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade

i said i loved you first, my love is just so .. and .. so many times i 've been came to blur you're not the only one i'm sure that .. and it hurts of all the pain you had i'm the worst in your eyes tonight i saw you how ..when you look back my all the lies reappear

chorus:

because it was all, it was all, it was masquerade,
masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade
masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade now i can't believe you're telling me you can move on easily i thought you really care for me i was wrong i should have known my phone was the sweatiest ..

.. all the possibilities ..playin you play in me i was wrong, i was wrongso i guess it was all, it was all, it was all masquerade
because it was all, it was all, it was masquerade,
masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade
masquerade, masquerade, masquerade, masquerade
