oh
oh yeah(x3)
i keep going through the motions like a ship in a storm we were too deep in a sea to just fall and i never been a quitter i believe i stood tall for me to wake up and find myself all alone yeah yeah

Pre-chorus:

even though i knew we had some better days yes i was sure we would get back to what silly means used to be so into you but now i can't wait to get over you i know i will but still one thing is real

Chorus:

You will remember my name doesn't matter who's in the picture when everything around you is different one thing will remain you will remember my name i feel sorry for when it hits ya but nobody else will leave her but then you'll be too late you will remember my name

Verse 2:

I know your hurting right now while you wear a smile but your the only person your really letting down cause i know once before you let true love walk on out but there's a guarantee it'll come back around (woah)

Pre-Chorus:

Even tho i knew we had some better days yes i was sure we would get back to what silly means used to
know i will but still one thing is real

Chorus:

You will remember my name doesn't matter whose in the picture when everything around you is different one thing will remain you will remember my name i feel sorry for when it hits ya but nobody else will leave her but then you'll be too late you will remember my name

Bridge:

You can't search the other side of the world i can promise that you won't feel the void cause i was so right for you in your heart of hearts you know its true keep runnin' away but you'll remember my name

Chorus:

You will remember my name (oh yeah)doesn't matter whose in the picture when everything(oh woah yeah yeah) around you is different one thing will remain you will remember my name i feel sorry for when it hits ya but nobody else will leave her but then you'll be to late you will remember my name(my name yeah)doesn't matter whose in the picture(hey!)when everything around you is different one thing will remain you will remember my name i feel sorry for when it hits ya(ooh) but nobody else will leave her but then you'll be to late(yea) you will remember my name oh yeah remember my name oh yeah remember my name oh yeah yeah my name ooh you will remember my name
