You said you would be everything you're not to me.

Said you'd make me feel alive, but you're killing me inside.

And, I bet that you knew all the time, you were bound to hurt me down the Line.

Don't try to tell me, "That's what all boys do," If that's the case, then I'm through with it all.

If you're telling me that love hurts, love stinks, love don't make no Sense, tell me why our love lives make me wanna cry, love's supposed to be My friend.

I've never been in love before, but I know it's not supposed to feel like This.

I've never been in love before, but I know I'm not supposed to feel like This.

You can't hurt me anymore, I won't come back like I did before. So, don't Try to make me stay, not that you could, anyway.

And, I bet that you knew all the time, you were gonna hurt me down the Line.

And, don't try to tell me, "That's what all boys do," If that's the case, Then I'm through with it all.

If you're telling me that love hurts, love stinks, love don't make no

Sense, tell me why our love lives make me wanna cry, love's supposed to be
My friend.

I've never been in love before, but I know it's not supposed to feel like
This.

I've never been in love before, but I know I'm not supposed to feel --

If you're telling me that love hurts, love stinks, love
don't make no
Sense, tell me why our love lives make me wanna cry,
love's supposed to be
My friend.

I've never been in love before, but I know it's not supposed to feel like
This.

I've never been in love before, but I know I'm not supposed to feel like
This.
