I've been here a bunch of times
It all starts with the same old lines
It's over baby it's over
Nothing bout it ever feels good
It knocks you down just like it should
But it goes away it always goes away
But something about this time feels different
It's like I'm in a fight I'm about to lose

Chorus:

This might be the heart ache that don't stop hurting
That just keeps working on me that just keep picking on me
And these might be the tears that keep on falling
That won't stop coming on down
They won't stop raining on down
And baby it's too early to know for certain
That this might be the heart ache that don't stop hurting

Man I tried to kill the pain
By shooting whiskey through my brain
But it never works
It only makes it worse
So tonight I'm here again
I'm throwing punches in the wind
At some enemy I can't even see
I know I don't wanna let it have me
But every time it hits I feel the truth

Chorus:

This might be the heart ache that don't stop hurting
That just keeps working on me that just keep picking on
me
And these might be the tears that keep on falling
That won't stop coming on down
They won't stop raining on down
And baby it's too early to know for certain
hurting

Tomorrow I'll stand up again
And give it my best shot again
But tonight it sure feels like These might be the tears that keep on falling
That won't stop coming on down
They won't stop raining on down
And baby it's too early to know for certain
That this might be the heart ache that don't stop
hurting
It just won't stop hurting
