I've been thinking 'bout you all day baby
Waiting on that sun to go down
What you say I pick you up after work
You slide over and we slip out to the outskirts of town
Got a blanket and a fifth of Comfort
A little something to knock off the edge
It's supposed to get a little cold tonight
Looks like I'm gonna have to hold you tight

'Bout a mile off Old Mill Road
That spot nobody knows
We park the truck and we take off running
Hurry up girl, I hear it coming
Got a moon and a million stars
The sound of steel and old boxcars
The thought of you's driving me insane
Come on baby let's go listen to the night train

Yeah I hope it's gonna be a long one
If we're lucky it's moving slow
Wouldn't mind if it lasted all night
Right next to you on that hill side
So let's go

'Bout a mile off Old Mill Road
That spot nobody knows
We park the truck and we take off running
Hurry up girl, I hear it coming
Got a moon and a million stars
The sound of steel and old boxcars
The thought of you's driving me insane
Come on baby let's go listen to the night train

Let's go listen to the night train

'Bout a mile off Old Mill Road
That spot nobody knows
We park the truck and we take off running
Hurry up girl, I hear it coming
Got a moon and a million stars
The sound of steel and old boxcars

The thought of you's driving me insane
Come on baby let's go listen to the night train

Let's go listen to the night train
