my life was as empty
as the bottle by my bed my friends turned into strangers and i was all but dead jesus came and found me there that day those demons left and my life was as empty

my first taste of the spirit it brought me to my knees i knew that i was helpless i prayed lord help me please each time was the last time that's what i always said when my life was as empty

by my bed
everything seemed further out of reach and in my head
oh i found it hard to practice what i preach

now i'm going back home it's down this path i'm led
and i'm no longer empty like the bottle by my bed sometimes this road gets lonesome and i wish that i could fly don't be afraid to stop me when i pass you by we'll sit and watch the sun go down as the waters turn to red and if you like i can tell you what about the bottle by my bed

by my bed

thank god that i'm not empty
