Rollin' down a backwoods, Tennessee by-way, got one arm on the wheel.

I Hold my lover with the other, a sweet, soft, southern thrill, southern thrill

Worked hard all week; got a little jingle, on a Tennessee Saturday night.

Couldn't feel better, I'm together, with my Dixieland Delight.

Gonna Spend my dollar, parked down in a holler,
'neath the mountain moonlight.

Gonna Hold her up tight, Gonna make a little lovin',
With A little turtle dovin' on the Mason-Dixon Line.

Fits my life, oh so right, my Dixieland Delight.
