There's a heartless feeling on the loose
There's a darkness draped over me
There's a warning I follow when I choose
It's in Exodus 20:v3

I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you
When he looks down in wonder
At all the foolish things I do
At the edge of hell there's a choice to make
To go around or through
I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you

I'm here waiting
For all the stars to fall
Lord I'm hating
What I've become
Now I can't breathe
There's no one I can call
So if you'd kindly let me up
I believe I'm done

I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you
When he looks down in wonder
At all the foolish things I do
At the edge of hell there's a choice to make
To go around or through
I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you

The pain comes flooding in
The waters won't roll back too soon
The demons swarm like locusts
In the dark inside my room

I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you
When he looks down in wonder
At all the foolish things I do

At the edge of hell there's a choice to make
To go around or through
I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you
I feel like God is mad at me
Because he thinks I worship you
