The party's not over
It's just leaving town
So don't be disappointed
It's gonna come back around
But who says that a good time
Ends at the end of the night
Oh the party's not over
So don't turn out the lights

There was a happening
Had here for sure
We've all got to be somewhere
A few forgot where they were

They don't stare if you stumble
They don't care if you crawl
They're sweeping up the broken glass
And it's after last call

The party's not over
It's just leaving town
So don't be disappointed
It's gonna come back around
But who says that a good time
Ends at the end of the night
Yeah the party's not over
So don't turn out the lights

Tomorrow morning
May hurt like hell
But it's going to be worth it
As far as I can tell

Cause I got me a woman
She's all over me
Sweet nothings in my ear
I wander what it could be

The party's not over
It's just leaving town
So don't be disappointed

It's gonna come back around
Who says that a good time
Ends at the end of the night
Yeah the party's not over
So don't turn out the lights

The party's not over
It's just leaving town
So don't be disappointed
Who says that a good time
Ends at the end of the night
Yeah the party's not over
So don't turn out the lights
I said the party's not over
So don't turn out the lights.....
