My friends all tell me I'm a day late
To birthdays, anniversaries, and anything with cake
I wanna go but they all tell me to wait
Cause I never look both ways
And I've been thinkin' 'bout you day and night
And every now and then I think I might have found the words to say
But it don't matter anyway
Cause everytime I look into your eyes
I get these feelings, like I'm so high
And you see, that should be okay, but i'm just so afraid
of heights
I gotta climb these mountains in my mind
Oh, these mountains inside
I gotta make my way to the other side

I remember the time outside your house
The words came easy, and you kissed me on the mouth
It was so easy in the dark
And now I don't know where to start
And I've been thinkin' 'bout you day and night
And every now and then I think I might have found just what to do
To make my way to you

But everytime I look into your eyes
I get these feelings, like I'm so high
And you see, that should be okay, but i'm just so afraid
of heights
I gotta climb these mountains in my mind
Oh, these mountains built up inside
I gotta make my way to the other side

And I know there's another side to you and I
To you and I
That's where I wanna be
And I know that it might take some time
Oh, but I know it's always better on the other side
On the other side

But you know everytime I look into your eyes
I get these feelings, like I'm so high
And you see, that should be okay, but i'm just so afraid
of heights
I gotta climb these mountains, mountains inside of me
Make my way to the other side
Oh, makin' my way

I'll see you on the other side
