Let me tell you something
Don't you worry about a thing tonight
I promise you that everything is gonna be alright
Hold your head up high, look up to the sky
Everything is gonna be alright

He's everything that you'll ever need, alright
Just when you think it and it's gonna be alright
Just call His name and you'll see what I mean, alright
Because He loves you unconditionally

Forever, He loves you always
Don't worry He'll be there always
And just because you've had yourself a couple bad
days
Don't mean it's gonna be this way always

Let me tell you something
Don't you worry about a thing tonight
I promise you that everything is gonna be alright
Hold your head up high, look up to the sky
Everything is gonna be alright

He's everything that you'll ever need, alright
Just when you think it and it's gonna be alright
Just call His name and you'll see what I mean, alright
Because He loves you unconditionally

Forever, He loves you always
Don't worry He'll be there always
And just because you've had yourself a couple bad
Don't mean it's gonna be this way always

Forever, He loves you always
Don't worry He'll be there always
And just because you've had yourself a couple bad
Don't mean it's gonna be this way always

No matter what you're going through
And when you don't know what to do

Don't turn and run away, fall on your knees and pray
Remember that He's with you

Forever, He loves you always
Don't worry He'll be there always
And just because you've had yourself a couple bad
Don't mean it's gonna be this way always

Forever, He loves you always
Don't worry He'll be there always
And just because you've had yourself a couple bad
Don't mean it's gonna be this way always

Forever, forever
Forever, forever
Forever, forever
Forever, forever
