Baby I love you, I love you, I love you
I swear you're the only one, only one
That is meant for me
You're always on my mind
I'll go through whatever

Me and you will ride into eternity

What's all around me baby I don't care
Your face is all I see when you're not here
And I'm so surprised I get carried away
I could lose a day from thinking you might not feel the same
Let me just say, I gotta turn it up cause no matter baby it's time
This what I feel, just need your love to follow me
Cause now you know that you're love, my everything, my everything

Now baby when I sleep at night
I close my eyes and smile
When I'm kissing you I feel my body
Light up inside, light up inside
I hope you never ever think about letting me go
If I don't have you baby, I would rather be alone

What we have is so untouchable, unbreakable
And we will go on and on baby
Baby I love you, I love you, I love you
I have found the only one
Only one that is meant for me
You're always on my mind
I'll go through whatever
Me and you ride to eternity

Baby I love you, I love you, I love you
I swear you're the only one, only one
That is meant for me
You're always by your side
This is whatever
Like the stars, my love will shine

Next to your heart

That he's sure, I only wanna be your friend
Took you from your world

I just can't be your friend
When I don't pretend I'm yours.
