Into the flames, here we go
Im burning up, youre so cold
Like a moth to a flame
Im falling right back into your arms
When I say yes, you say no
When I stay stop, you say go
But you got a way to keep me coming back for more

Girl, were like oil and water
Yeah, nothing can keep us apart
But you, you attract me
Just like a magnet pulling my heart
Its like opposites attract and I cant take it back
And even though I know its wrong it feels so right
Like the dark needs the light, I need you by my side
We go together like black and white

No more dreaming, wake up
Is attraction enough?
I cant explain what keeps me crawling back to you
Is it hello or goodbye?
Is it the truth or a lie?
Girl, either way you keep me coming back for more

Girl, were like oil and water
Yeah, nothing can keep us apart
You, you attract me
Just like a magnet pulling my heart
Its like opposites attract and I cant take it back
And even though I know its wrong it feels so right
Like the dark needs the light, I need you by my side
We go together like black and white

Youre so close to my heart, girl
You, you know me so well
You take, take my hand, girl
Throw me out of my shell
Youre so close to my heart, girl
You, you know me so well
You take, take my hand, girl
Throw me out of my shell

Its like opposites attract and I cant take it back
And even though I know its wrong it feels so right
Like the dark needs the light, I need you by my side
We go together like black and white

Its like opposites attract and I cant take it back
And even though I know its wrong it feels so right
Like the dark needs the light, I need you by my side
We go together like black and white
