Get a load of this.
She said I turned to a prince after just one kiss.
While she was with somebody else this was all a trick.
Grew up and realized that happiness is a lie.
Just wish that I could rewind and face reality, yeah.

Once upon a time I had a reason.
To wake every day, continue breathing.
Till she threw our love away.
Cause I discovered one enchanting evenin'.
This stupid beauty all along was cheating.
That's when I knew that love was fake, oh!

I don't believe in happy endings
I don't believe in fairytale
I don't believe I should go on pretending.
I don't believe in fairytale

That's how the story ends.
I run away from the myth 'fore another begins.
When does the good guy win?
She was the sexiest of evil. The perfect sin, yeah.
Grew up and realized that happiness is a lie.
Just wish that I could rewind and face reality, yeah.

Once upon a time I had a reason.
To wake every day, continue breathing.
Till she threw our love away.
Cause I discovered one enchanting evenin'.
This stupid beauty all along was cheating.
That's when I knew that love was fake, oh!

I don't believe in happy endings
I don't believe in fairytale
I don't believe I should go on pretending.
I don't believe in fairytale.
