Oh, Oh, Oh, Jason Derulo
Oh, Oh, Oh
You were standin' right in front of me
Sexy from head to toe
I said baby, are you a freak?
As my eyes were takin' off your clothes
Girl I don't wanna make you mine
I just wanna spend some time

We could talk, love, sweat, undress
And if you got a couple friends,
You can tell them jump right in
We can talk, love, sweat, undress
Cuz you're not my lover
Not my friend
Touchin up another, nother, I wanna
Part time lover, part time lover
Part time, Part time, Part time, my part time lover

Part time lover, part time lover,
Part time, Part time, Part time, my part time lover

Hey baby, I'm Jason Derulo
And I've been watchin' you watchin' me, and I like what I see
I wanna make you mine, but how selfish would that be?
So let's be part time!

Under covers we could surely be
Your man don't even have to know
About the escapage when you're with me
Yeah we can keep our lovin' on the low

Don't wanna make you mine, I just wanna spend some time
We could talk, love, sweat, undress
And if you got a couple friends,
You can tell them jump right in
We can talk, love, sweat, undress
Cuz you're not my lover

Not my friend
Touchin up another, nother, I wanna
Part time lover, part time lover
Part time, Part time, Part time, my part time lover

Part time lover, part time lover,
Part time, Part time, Part time, my part time lover

Let's not talk about it
Let's just be about it
I can tell you wanna touch
I can tell you wanna
Start the conversation 'bout the situation
Cuz I'm ready baby, Oh

If you're feelin' like a freight train in the middle of the night
You can call me on the phone
Just don't let it ring twice
And if my girl's at home
And you're parked outside
Not my lover, not my friend
Searchin' for another, nother, I wonder
Part time lover, part time lover
Part time, Part time, Part time, my part time lover

Part time lover, part time lover,
Part time, Part time, Part time, my part time lover
