

Jason Donovan

"Unsteady Ground"

Visit "Unsteady Ground" on MotoLyrics.com

Tomorrow I might get up nice and early
And watch the sun come up for a change
Make myself a fresh cup of coffee
Pick up the morning paper and watch the world go frame by frame

I've been running around since I was twenty
And I woke up today at thirty five
With a ringing in my ears
It's been there for years
And it compliments these lines around my eyes

Chorus:
I think I'll keep it nice and easy
This fast life's slowing me down
The wheels still roll on beneath me
But I'm driving on unsteady ground

I've seen a lot of things that I'm not proud of I've had a lot of good times on the side
I've made some friends
I see them now and then
Banged up and beat down from this long hard ride

(Chorus)

So tonight I'm gonna lie down nice and early
And settle up for what might lay in store
I've made my own mind
Took my chances and my time
But now it's time to look for something more

(Chorus)

Visit Jason Donovan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.