"Hey"

If i run as hard as i can alongside an african who'd be faster, me or him? i wonder which of us would win?
and at the end of the race we'd find a nice ice cream place we'd chill out and discuss the race one on one and face to face and i wish i could see what a blind man sees i'll bet it's better than looking at me especially considering i lost my race but now i see i'm in a higher place

Now i've rund as hard as i can run To get away from all the races i've runif you do what i have done well then the race is already won

Say,"hey, hey, don't run the race
