It's 4am I'm stuck inside
Of this hotel room
With my foolish pride
I yelled at you you screamed at me
We both said some awful things we didn't mean
If I could take it back I would
But what's done is done
And now life ain't what it should

Chorus

So I don't wanna fight no more
I don't know what we're fighting for
All I hear is Slammin Doors And you walking away

Maybe we could work it out
Trying not to scream and shout
Find out what it's all about
Because I still love you
Yeah you heard me, I still Love you

It's lonely out there
When you live life alone
When your out on the road and you ain't gotta a home
I roam from town to town further away
From the problems that I faced only yesterday
But I'm on my knees praying to heaven above
What's the meaning of life if you ain't got love

Chorus

No matter what I do the fact remains the same
I slowly driving myself insane
I wanna take back those nasty things that I said
I got carried away and I lost my head

Chorus
