I guess i never wanted this
Another 'ever after' kiss... Oh
Operator, the line is dead
Oh no, it's only me and all the walls inside my head

And for the record I was lost
With only one road I could never cross
And that's the road that takes me here
Oh no, not again
This is where it started

I need you, I'm for you
You threw me, I caught you
Don't leave me and say that you want to find a way back
Believe me, I followed all you said... Oh
Operator, the line is dead

How come you never look away
Everybody bought but I paid
You're not the one who left me here
Oh no, that was me and all the things I wanted

But now I find you different
You broke up all the walls in my head
Please don't go, let me

Need you, I want you
You know that I found you
Don't leave me and say that you want to find a way
back
Believe me, I followed all you said... Oh
Operator, the line is dead

I guess i never wanted this
Another 'ever after' kiss... Oh
Operator, the line is dead
Oh no, it's only me and all the walls inside my head

I need you, I'm for you
You threw me, I caught you
Don't leave me and say that you want to find a way

Believe me, I followed all you said... Oh
Operator, the line is dead

I need you, I'm for you (All you've said)
You threw me, I caught you (All you've said)
Don't leave me and say that you want
To find a way back (All you said)
Believe me, I followed all you said... Oh
Operator, the line is dead
