"A Piece Of My Life"

I feel breathe, live alone with my love,
I gave it to you, I should have known,
Reality will never be a dream!
In my dreams I walk around,
In the darkness of my ashes,
Always following your light,
I feel no fear, cause your fire gives me safety
My fire burns deep and ardent,
But I radiate just coldness and hopeless
Helplessness, awkward,
Naive like a child
Everyday I fell reality, the reflection of the wide void
I don't want to live, just want dream!
(my fire burns deep and ardent)
Come on and play with me.
